Murphy, Coe & Smith, PLLC respects your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard your information when you interact with us, including through our text messaging (SMS/MMS) campaigns, website, and other communication channels.

We may collect the following types of information:

- Personal Information: Name, phone number, email address, and other details you provide voluntarily.
- Message Data: Message content, frequency, and responses when you participate in our SMS campaigns.
- Usage Data: Technical information such as IP address, device type, and browser information when you visit our website.

We use your information to:

- Send you messages related to our services or updates.
- Respond to your inquiries.
- Improve our communication services and user experience.
- Comply with legal and regulatory requirements.

By providing your mobile number and opting in to receive text messages, you consent to receive recurring SMS or MMS messages from Murphy, Coe & Smith, PLLC. Message frequency may vary. Message and data rates may apply. You can opt out at any time by replying STOP to any message.

We do not sell, rent, or share your personal information — including mobile phone contact information — to or with third parties for marketing or promotional purposes. We implement reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to protect your information from unauthorized access, disclosure, or misuse. However, no method of transmission over the internet or via mobile networks is completely secure.

We retain your personal information only for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes described in this policy or as required by law.

You have the right to:

- Access, update, or delete your personal information.
- Withdraw consent to receive text messages at any time.
- Contact us with privacy-related questions or concerns.
